

Scott P. Allman, AIA CDP

President

scotta@ethosworkshop.com

As founder and President of The Ethos Workshop, Ltd., Scott leads the firm in pursuing a consistent body of accomplished work. His strengths as a designer and team leader are a great complement to his integrity and easy-going personality. Scott comes alongside his clients in an open and collaborative relationship, offering confidence and experience.

Scott oversees all aspects of project and business development for the firm. He continues a tradition of excellence in practice, which began during his tenure at the Chicago office of Skidmore, Owings & Merrill, LLP. With strong ties to several universities in the midwest, he has been a frequent guest lecturer and studio critic. Scott holds a Masters degree in Architecture from the University of Pennsylvania, and a Bachelor of Environmental Design from Miami University.

Scott is an avid soccer player, and an accomplished musician. He lives with his family in Naperville, Illinois.

American Institute of Architects | Chicago Chapter
National Council of Architectural Registration Boards (NCARB)
ICSC (International Council of Shopping Centers)
ICSC NextGen Chicago Steering Committee Member
American Society of Healthcare Engineers (ASHE)
The United States Green Building Council | Chicago Chapter
The Executive's Club of Chicago (past member)
Miami University School of Architecture Alumni Board

Prior work experience:
CVG Design Group, Inc. (Naperville)
Skidmore, Owings & Merrill LLP (Chicago)
The Kling-Lindquist Partnership (Philadelphia)

updated October, 2008